Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

From the REFLECTOR.

Of AMBITION and MEANNESS.

I Here mean not to ſpeak of Rank, or Precedency; but only to lay open an Error daily committed, by calling that Ambition or Greatneſs, which may more juſtly be termed Meanneſs or Baſeneſs. To illuſtrate this Point, I ſhall produce two Perſons from ancient Hiſtory. Both Alexander and Cæſar were immoderately ambitious; but not with the ſame Propriety.

Alexander took the ſtrait Road to Fame, by braving Misfortunes, Difficulties, and Dangers; determined rather to fall, than recede a Step; rather to loſe the Whole, than give up the leaſt Part. But Cæſar, to become great, debaſed himſelf immoderately; ſtooped to mean Actions; and, to get Dominion over his Equals, ſuffered even his Inferiors to tread upon him; flattered the Scum of the People, and ſacrificed true Glory to an empty Name. This is not Ambition, but extreme Baſeneſs.

Indeed, an ambitious Man is no good Man; if by Tyranny and Bloodſhed he forces his Way to Greatneſs: But to practiſe Baſeneſs to ſmooth the Way to it, is acting out of the Character of Ambition; either directly contrary to its Nature. If Alexander had found no other Means but theſe, to make himſelf Great, he would never have obtained his End: For as his lofty Soul could not ſtoop to Baſeneſs, or condeſcend to work with mean Tools; nor even to gain a Victory by flying and facing; his Ambition would have conquered itſelf; and made him renounce conquering the World. Cæſar was not ſo delicate; no Road was too dirty for him; he deſtroyed no Regard to Right and Wrong; he uſed Craft and Subtilty, Diſſimulation and Flattery, bowed down to the Wicked, and court-ed the Mob, in hopes of riſing; he wallowed in Baſeneſs, to arrive at Power; and crawled thro' the Mire to the Throne. Alexander, with a high Creſt, always ſimilar to himſelf, goes on majeſtic; and his Motto was, "I could uſe other Means to accompliſh my Ends, if I were Parmenio, and not Alexander." A Man may commit horrid Crimes to gratify his Luſt of Ambition; yet not ſtoop to any Mortal; or practiſe low, grovelling Arts, to arrive at his Ends. It is wrong to call any Man ambitious, who ſervilely changes himſelf into the baſeſt Shapes; and obtains a Title only by ſacrificing real Honour to nothing but its Shadow.

The haughty ambitious Man, and the low proud Man, are different Characters; tho' commonly confounded. The both deſerve Reproof, but of different Kinds. The haughty ambitious Man diſdains all but baſe Means, to riſe in Life; but he will not fawn to become a Lord; he will not beg, tho' to make himſelf rich; he will not be trampled on by ſome, in order to rule over others. But the mean proud Aſpirer fights all the Weapons, even the baſeſt; bears Scoffs and Contempts; behaves like a Slave; crawls like a Worm; and tamely ſuffers Indignities.

There were two Brothers, the one a Governor, the other a Cobler. The one was called Ambitious, becauſe he ſtrove after Honours and Preferments; the other was thought to have no Ambition, becauſe he continued a plain Citizen. The ambitious Brother not acquainted with the Footman of a Nobleman; and by his Means gained Admittance into the Houſe. Being once entered, and in the Abſence of the Nurſe, to rock the Cradle; in the Abſence of the Maids, to ſweep out the Rooms; and, when no Body elſe was in the Way, he would bruſh my Lord's Clothes: By which ready Addreſs, he acquired the Favour both of the Lord and my Lady. When he had obtained ſome Footing, he made Panegyrics, and congratulatory Poems, upon the Births and Chriſtenings of the Children, and other joyful Occaſions of the Family; and roſe to ſuch a Height of Favour, as to be admitted to dine with my Lord. Now he ſtudied the Turn and Temper of his Patron, in order to regulate his own Behaviour; he appro-priated nothing but what pleaſed his Lordſhip; and ſquaring his Religion and his Conſcience to that Model, became the Favourite of the Family. Laſtly, he obtained a Promiſe of Marriage from my Lady's Woman; upon which, both the Patron and Patroneſs re-garding his Welfare as their own, never ceaſed ſoliciting, till they procured a Title for him. And, thus, the Comedy ended in a Wedding.

All this while the Citizen continued to ſupport himſelf by his Trade and Labour; and will always remain what he is, a worthy Man; but the other, a contemptible Creature: For their different Manners ſhew, that tho' the one is more raiſed, the other is the more honourable; and that he who was ſaid to have no Ambition, is ten times more nobly ambitious than his Brother. A Title can never waſh out the Stain of Servility. It happens with ſuch low Creatures, as, by the common Proverb, with Apes; the more they ſtruggle, or the higher they climb, the more they diſcover their odious Failings.

It is a Miſtake to think, that a Petitioner for Honours and Titles is nobly ambitious; this being always a Sign of a grovelling Mind. Such Petitioners reſemble common Beggars; the Difference lying only in this, that one begs out of Neceſſity, and the other Vanity. A Spaniſh Nobleman, who prefers Hunger to Labour, and Starving to the Staining of his Blood, may juſtly be called proud. Such a Nobleman has ten times more Ambition than a Cæſar, a Pompey, or a Craſſus; for, tho' the noble Spaniard would deſire to be a Cæſar, yet he would not tread in Cæſar's Steps to arrive at Cæſar's Station. His only Wiſh, when ſtarv-ing, would be to have been born a Commoner; that he might have ſtood for his Living with Reputation.

MADRID, March 25.

IT is currently reported, that a conſiderable Body of Troops is to be tranſported to Oran. If this Report ſhould prove true, we may conclude that the Court has not yet laid aſide the Project it form'd of laſt Year, of attacking the Algerines with the utmoſt Vigour, both by Sea and Land. It is certain, that they continue to work hard in our Ports, in building and equipping divers Men of War and other Veſſels; and from Carthagena we hear, that two 50 Gun Ships, with four large Xebeques, ſail'd from thence the 13th Inſtant, on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pirates, and that they are to be follow'd by ſeveral other Ships. They alſo write us from Carthagena, that ſeveral Veſſels laden with Timber, and other Naval Stores, lately arrived there.

Copenhagen, April 3. We are actually equipping with all poſſible Diligence, four Men of War, and ſix Frigates, on board of which 1500 Regular Troops are to be embark'd, and 'tis given out, that this Squadron is bound for the Coaſt of Africa, in order to make a new Settlement there, which we expect will prove very advantageous to our Commerce.

Lubeck, April 3. We are now informed that Mr. Ammon, one of the King of Pruſſia's Chamberlains, has ſucceeded in the Commiſſion he went to execute at the French Court, the principal Article of which, was to ſettle the Contingent of Troops which that Crown ſhould furniſh to his Pruſſian Majeſty in caſe of Need; and 'tis pretended that this Contingent is fixed at 30,000 Foot, and 10,000 Horſe.

Vienna, April 3. The Levies for compleating the Imperial Troops are carried on with all the Succeſs that can be wiſh'd. The 27th ult. a Body of Recruits was ſent away to Hungary, and will ſpeedily be followed by a greater Number. We are aſſured that the Court has reſolved to erect four large Magazines of Proviſions and Warlike Stores in that Kingdom, three in Bohemia, two in Moravia, and two in Auſtria.

Paris, April 9. The laſt Letters from Toulon adviſe, that they have put three new Men of War on the Stocks, and are likewiſe building eighteen Sloops of War of a new Invention.

Vienna, April 10. The Elector Palatine, has preſented a Memorial to this Court, containing a very conſiderable Demand for Proviſions and Forage furniſhed to the Imperial Troops, during the late War; which Memorial, is ordered to be immediately taken into Conſideration.

Bruſſels, April 19. 'Tis ſaid that a Camp is ſoon to be formed in the Neighbourhood of Ruremonde upon the Meuſe, and that it will be compoſed of two Battalions, of each of the Regiments in Garriſon in the Neighbouring Provinces. The Detachment of Matroſſes who are here, have received Orders to march for Mechlin, in order to join their Company; and a Battalion of the Regiment of Ligne, is arrived here from Mons, on its Way to Bruges.

Leghorn, April 7. The Emperor's three Ships of War, which arrived here lately from the Levant, and the Coaſt of Barbary, have performed their Quarantine, and are now unloading. The Captain of a Merchmantman, who arrived here a few Days ago from the Iſland of Capraia, reports, that three Genoeſe Frigates had taken an Algerine Corſair of 18 Guns and 47 Men, off the Iſland of Pianoſa, after a Chace of three Days. There were two Corſairs in Company when the Genoeſe firſt diſcovered them, but one made her Eſcape. We are informed by a Venetian Felucca, that the Turkiſh Troops quartered in Dalmatia, have received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march. This News appears the more ſurprizing, as we are ſenſible of the pacifick Temper of the Grand Signor, and of the ſtrong Aſſurances he has given for ſome Time paſt of his ſincere Deſire to live in perfect Friendſhip with all the Chriſtian Powers.

Hamburgh, April 23. The laſt Letters from Peterſburgh adviſe, that the Ruſſian Troops that are in Garriſon in Ingermania, and the neighbouring Provinces, had received Orders to quit their Quarters, and form ſeveral Encampments.

Hague, April 25. They write from Bergen-op-Zoom, that the Ruins of that Place are conſiderably repaired, and it is reckoned, that at leaſt a third Part of the Houſes will be rebuilt this Summer, and the whole in three Years Time. The Church and Tower will ſoon be rebuilt, and the Fortifications are alſo repairing with all imaginable Diſpatch.

Peterſburgh, April 9. The River Neva, which has been ſhut up for a conſiderable Time paſt with Ice, is now open again; whereupon Orders have been ſent to Cronſtadt, for all Officers and Sailors belonging to her Imperial Majeſty's Squadron in that Port, to repair immediately on board their reſpective Ships, on Pain of ſevere Puniſhment.

Genoa, April 14. As the Means which the Government have made Uſe of for eſtabliſhing the Credit of the Bank of St. George, have not as yet had their deſired Effect, their Bills being ſtill at about 25 per Cent. Diſcount, 'tis ſaid that a Duty of 10 per Cent. upon all Penſions, will be added to the Duties already granted in Favour of that Bank. 'Tis generally reported here, that the Grand Maſter of Malta, has at laſt conſented to the ſetting at Liberty the famous Baſhaw of Rhodes, and that, in Conſequence thereof, he embarked on board a French Veſſel for Conſtantinople.

Stockholm, April 15. After the King had ſigned the Act or Inſtrument mentioned in our former Advices, and taken an Oath to obſerve it, his Majeſty explained himſelf in the following Terms to the Senate:

'Being called, by the Death of the late King, to fill the Throne of this Kingdom, I renew with Pleaſure, at my Acceſſion to the Crown, the Aſſurances I formerly gave of my invariable Reſolution to reign and govern agreeably to the Oath I have taken, and according to the receiv'd and eſtabliſh'd Laws of the Kingdom. There is nothing in this World I have more at Heart, than the Safety, Proſperity, and Advancement of every Thing that may conduce to the Advantage of the State, and the Benefit of my Subjects. I cannot view the weighty Office of Governing in the preſent Conjuncture, without reflecting on all the Care and Trouble that muſt inevitably attend it; However, I truſt entirely to the Integrity of theſe Gentlemen, the Senators, being fully perſuaded that they will faithfully aſſiſt me with their good and ſalutary Advice, which I ſhall always receive in a grateful and friendly Mannner.'

The Speech which Count Teſſin made the ſame Day in the Senate, has ſince been publiſh'd, and contains, among other Things, the following remarkable Paſſages.

'May the Bleſſings of the Lord wait round your Majeſty's Throne! May the Lord's Anointed be protected by the Strength of his Almighty Arm! May the deſtroying Angel be driven far away from the Country and its Inhabitants; and may Peace flouriſh in our Dwellings! But if ever we ſhould be obliged, marching by your Majeſty's Side, to repel with the Sword any Invaſion unjuſtly attempted, may the God of all Mercy then go before your Majeſty, and fill your Royal Perſon with his Spirit, to the End that a free People may never become Slaves to a deſpotick Potentate, and that the willing Obedience of the Subjects may be the beſt Pledge of their Attachment and Fidelity to their King.'

Genoa, April 10. The Number of Barbary Corſairs daily encreaſes in the Mediterranean; and Advices from Tunis, Algier, and Tripoli, bring, that they are fitting out ſeveral more, which will ſoon be ready to put to Sea.

Hamburgh, April 23. Letters from Peterſburgh confirm, that ſeveral Foreign Generals, who ſollicited their Diſmiſſion, have obtained their Requeſt, it being the Empreſs's Intention to leave them free to ſtay or go. Thoſe Letters add, that Count Douglas, Lieutenant General, who is deſcended from a Swediſh Family ſettled in Eſthonia, has likewiſe obtained his Diſmiſſion from the Ruſſian Service.

LONDON, April 6.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, April 9.

If one may give Credit to what the Advices from Paris import, the Britiſh and French Courts are agreed upon the principal Points which relate to their reſpective Poſſeſſions in America, and in Conſequence thereof, they have each of them ſent to their Commandants and Governors there, to do nothing that may interrupt the good Underſtanding which now prevails between their Britiſh and Moſt Chriſtian Majeſties. One may, as a private Letter intimates, the more readily give Credit to what is reported about ſuch Orders being ſent to the Governors and Commandants, ſeeing France is likely to gain thereby; ſince ſhe will ſcarcely fail, during the Time that theſe Orders ſubſiſt, and are obſerved, to ſend all Sorts of Proviſions and Ammunition, not only to the French Colonies, which ſhe is permitted to do, and which cannot, without Injuſtice, be conteſted with her; but ſhe may likewiſe, without any Obſtacle, and undoubtedly will, furniſh with Arms the Indians, Neighbours of Nova-Scotia, as well as the antient French Inhabitants eſtabliſhed in thoſe Quarters, and whom the Engliſh call Rebels, becauſe they depend upon Nova-Scotia, and conſequently are Subjects of his Britannick Majeſty.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated Feb. 24.

"Our Commodore has been amongſt all the Neutral Iſlands, reading Proclamations, &c. in order to make the French evacuate them; but they have fairly told him they ſhall not quit Poſſeſſion. They are very numerous in thoſe Iſlands, and the Indians are firmly attached to them: So that it will be no eaſy Taſk to drive them out, ſuppoſing our Governors ſhould at laſt reſolve to employ Force."

April 11. By the Maſter of a Coaſting Veſſel from Lemington, we have Advice, that on Thurſday laſt, ſix French Men of War were plying to Windward off Dungeneſs, which are ſuppoſed to be deſtined for the Baltick; an Account of which has been tranſmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty.

April 13. On Thurſday was held a Board of Admiralty, when the Goſport, of 40 Guns, and the Centaur, were put into Commiſſion.

The ſame Day, Orders were given for fitting out four Ships of the Line, at Deptford, Woolwich and Chatham, with all Expedition.

April 16. We hear, that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, has given Orders for all the late Prince's domeſtic Servants to be allowed their Salaries 'till they can be otherwiſe provided for.

April 20. Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Troops quartered in the interior Provinces of France, have received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs for a March towards the Frontiers, after they ſhall have been reviewed by the Inſpectors General.

If ſome private Letters from Berlin may be depended on, that Court is treating with the Margrave of Bereith, about admitting ſeveral Regiments of Pruſſian Troops into his Territories.

April 23. By Letters from Peterſburgh, of the 9th Inſt. N. S. we have advice, that three Ladies, Daughters of a general Officer, who intimated that they had ſome important Diſcoveries to make, have been brought to that City from Revel, under a Guard of Soldiers. The Empreſs has caus'd them to be examin'd in her Preſence, that ſhe might the better judge of the Affair. An Officer of Note has alſo been put under Arreſt: The whole City is alarm'd, and no Body knows where the Informations will end. Upon which they obſerve, that Informers are not eaſily credited in Ruſſia; for according to the antient Laws of that Empire, any Perſon who accuſes another, muſt voluntarily ſuffer himſelf to be put to the Torture, as a Proof that his Information is true; and that the Party accuſed, if he denies the Fact, is likewiſe rack'd 'till they extort a Confeſſion from him.

We hear his Majeſty has added 2500o l. a Year to the Appointment of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and that the Income of the Dutchy of Cornwall, which is computed to amount to near 13000l. a Year, is appropriated by his Majeſty to the Payment of his late Royal Highneſs's Tradeſmen.

Some private Letters from Madrid ſay, that a viſible Coldneſs has ariſen between that Court and the Court of Liſbon, in relation to the Affair of Nova Colonia. Theſe Letters likewiſe ſay, that it begins to be whiſpered there are two extraordinary Negociations on Foot; the Marriage of the Infant Don Lewis with the eldeſt Archdutcheſs of Auſtria, and the other of the Archduke Joſeph, with the eldeſt Daughter of the King of the Two Sicilies.

There is Advice from Paris by Yeſterday's Mail, that they are extremely ſurpriſed at what has been publiſhed in other Countries relating to the Iſland of St. Lucia, as if the moſt Chriſtian King had cauſed it to be declared to the Engliſh Commiſſiaries, that he relinquiſhed his Right to that Iſland, and conſented that it ſhould be declared neuter, and evacuated it upon that Footing. Theſe Advices add, that whoever repreſented the Thing in that Light, were by no means acquainted with the inconteſtable Right of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to the Iſland of St. Lucia; that his Majeſty did indeed, in Conſideration of the good Underſtanding which ſubſiſts between him and the Britiſh Court, conſent that that Iſland ſhould be evacuated, but that this was only meant proviſionally, and till ſuch Time as the reſpective Commiſſaries ſhould agree about the Property of it.

We hear that the Honourable Houſe of Commons have agreed to pay off 200,000 l. of the Debt of the Navy for Seamens Wages.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, April. 30.

"The Archbiſhop of this City, and ſome other Prelates, continue to treat with the King's Miniſters about adjuſting the Affairs of the Clergy, but the Publick do not yet exactly know what Progreſs they have made in this Negociation. In the mean while, we daily ſee ſome new Pamphlet publiſhed againſt the Claims of the Clergy. It is true indeed that thoſe Pieces are not openly countenanced by the Government, nor do the Clergy make any Reply to them. There is one among the reſt, juſt come from the Preſs, intituled An Impartial Inquiry into Eccleſiaſtick Immunities, which is the beſt that has yet appeared on the Subject; the Author, whilſt he preſerves all the Reſpect and Regard due to Religion and its Miniſters, Miniſters, confutes their Pretenſions ſo ſolidly, that he leaves them no Room for a Reply. This Work has a great Run, and will in all Probability terminate the Diſpute, if it be not already as good as ended, as moſt of the Clergy, eſpecially thoſe of the ſecond Order, are actually diſpoſed to give the King Proofs of their Fidelity and Obedience."

Best possible image.

April 22. Died the moſt noble Francis Scott, Duke of Buccleugh, Earl of Dalkeith, and Baron of Winchester and Elkdale, in Scotland, Earl of Doncaſter, and Baron Scott, of Tindall, in England, and Knight of the Order of the Thiſtle. He is ſucceeded by his Grandſon, Henry, Earl of Dalkeith, now Duke of Buccleugh. His late Grace was Grandſon to James, Duke of Monmouth, eldeſt Son of King Charles II.

April 27. We hear her Royal Highneſs, the Princeſs of Wales, was Yeſterday appointed ſole Regent, with a Council of Nine, at the Head of which is his Royal Highneſs, the Duke of Cumberland.

April 30. A private Letter, by Yeſterday's French Mail, brings Advice of the Arrival of the Achilles from India at Port l' Orient, by which they have receiv'd an Account of the Siege of Pondicherry, importing, that the Mogul's Troops having attempted to carry the Town by Storm, were beaten off with great Loſs, and then broke up their Camp in ſuch a Hurry, that they let part of their Baggage fall into the Hands of the French: And that the Indian General ſent afterwards a Herald to the Commandant of Pondicherry, offering to treat about Terms of Peace.

ANNAPOLIS, June 26.

This Day Oneſiphorus Lucas, a Convict Servant Man, was executed here, purſuant to his Sentence at the late Special Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Goal Delivery, held in this City.

July 3. We hear from all Parts of the Province, that they have had a very good and plentiful Harveſt: It is ſuppoſed that there is more Wheat made this Year in the Country, than ever was in any one Year before. And there is (God be thanked) a very good Proſpect for fine Crops of Corn and Tobacco, all over the Province.

About a Fortnight ago, a Negroe Man in Queen-Anne's County having got into and robb'd a Houſe of ſundry Things in the Night, was heard in getting out, and purſued by the Man of the Houſe, who overtook and ſeiz'd him, but the Negroe, in the Struggle ſtabb'd him with a Knife in ſeveral Places on the left Breaſt, but not mortally. He is now in Goal there, and will be tried at their next County Court.

Late laſt Night, one of the moſt audacious Robberies was attempted in Town, which perhaps has been heard of in this Part of the World: Two Men arm'd, went to the Houſe of Mr. Charles Cole, of this Place, Merchant, and having placed a Ladder up to a Dormant Window, one of them aſcended and got into the Room where Mr. Cole lay, and having a dark Lanthorn and a Piſtol, preſented the Piſtol at Mr. Cole, and told him if he offer'd to ſtir or make a Noiſe he would immediately blow his Brains out, then fell on him and tied him, and gave him ſeveral Bruiſes, telling him, his Money he wanted, and that he would have; his Accomplice was left below, to give Notice in caſe of any Aſſiſtance; but Mr. Cole's Man John, who lay in a Houſe cloſe adjoining, hearing ſome Noiſe, look'd out, when the Man below told him if he offer'd to ſtir or make any Noiſe he would ſhoot him dead; but John fetch'd a loaded Piece, and fired out of the Window at him, but miſſed him, on which he fired a Piece at John, loaded with Slugs, which narrowly miſſed him, but happily did no Harm: This alarm'd the Man in the Chamber with Mr. Cole, and he made off out of the Window, leaving Mr. Cole bound in Bed, and, with his Accomplice, got off before any Help came; and are as yet undiſcovered.

BOSTON, July 1.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated June 14.

"Yeſterday Col. Gorham had a fine new Brig launch'd, with Maſts, Sails, and Part of her Lading in, before ſome Thouſands of Spectators, and went off to Admiration; the Carpenters that built her were dreſs'd in clean white Frocks and Trowſers, clean white ruffled Shirts, and Gold-laced Hats: Such a Launch I never ſaw before; and every Thing went on quietly. His Excellency gave her the Name of the Oſborne-Galley. She mounts 10 Carriage Guns, and I hear is bound from hence to Ireland, and thence to England: She is commanded by Capt. Samuel Appleton."

At the Superior Court, &c. held at York the 11th Inſt. Benjamin Ledite was try'd for the Murder of the India Woman at Wiſcaſſet, and acquitted; but being afterwards tried for aſſaulting and wounding two other Indians at the ſame Time and Place, with Intent to kill them, was convicted and ſentenced to be ſent to the Gallows with a Rope about his Neck, for the Space of an Hour, to be whip'd 20 Stripes under the Gallows, and to give Bond for his good Behaviour for three Years, to pay Coſts, &c.

July 25. 1751. NUMB. 1180.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Sunday laſt arrived here Captain Meſnard, from London, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

MADRID, April 20.

THEY write from Malaga, that the Scarcity of Corn and Proviſions in the Neighbourhood of that Port, has cauſed a malignant Fever to prevail there, which carries off great Numbers of People. There is much Talk of ſhortly ſending a ſtrong Squadron to Sea, but its Deſtination is not known.

Cologne, May 7. Letters from Manheim, and ſeveral other Courts of the Empire, ſpeak poſitively of a Treaty of Union concluded between ſome of the principal Members of the Germanick Body, for maintaining its fundamental Conſtitution, and for preventing any Derogation therefrom, either by the Election of a King of the Romans, or by any other Meaſure whatſoever.

Madrid, April 27. The Council has been employed for ſome Days in examining a Memorial preſented by Mr. Keene, concerning the better regulating of the Navigation of the Engliſh in the Weſt-Indies, ſo as to prevent, by Means of ſome fixed Regulation, the Irregularities which they ſtill complain of, eſpecially in regard to the Freight they pretend to have of trading to the Bay of Honduras.

Conſtantinople, May 2. The laſt Letters from Choczim adviſe, that the Ottoman Porte has prohibited the ſending of Cattle and Corn into Ruſſia, under ſevere Penalties, and that there was great Talk of forming a Camp near that City of 40,000 Ottoman Troops ſome Time this Month. Theſe Letters add, that a Turkiſh Engineer was arrived there to viſit the Fortifications, in order to have them repaired and augmented, the Materials being already provided for that Purpoſe. Other Advices from the Frontiers import, that the Turks continue to erect great Magazines there, both for Proviſions and Stores, and that the Hoſpodar of Walachia is ordered to do the ſame. As to the Tartars, they continue to make Incurſions upon the Ruſſian Territories, but with what Succeſs is not known.

Venice, April 26. The Republick, it is ſaid, is going to enter into a defenſive Alliance with the Imperial Court, againſt the Turks.

Altena, May 1. Letters from Stockholm adviſe, that a Body of 1000 Swediſh Troops have Orders to hold themſelves ready to march at the firſt Notice.

Stockholm, May 7. It having been reſolved by this Court to build ſome new Forts upon the Frontiers of Finland, and finiſh thoſe that are already begun, eight Regiments of Foot, amounting to about 8000 Men, will, 'tis ſaid, in Conſequence thereof, be ſent thither to be employed in thoſe Works, in the Place of the Militia, which will be diſcharged.

Hamburgh, May 14. They write from Riga, that Veldt-Marſhal Count Lacy, an Iriſhman, died there the 30th of laſt Month, in the eighty-fifth Year of his Age. He was Commander in Chief of her Imperial Majeſty's Troops in the Conquered Provinces, and Governour of Riga.

Genoa, May 1. By the laſt Letters from Corſica we are informed, that the Inhabitants of ſeveral Diſtricts have afreſh taken up Arms against the French, and have had ſeveral ſharp Skirmiſhes with them, wherein the latter have been ill treated. It is added, that the Marquis de Curſay, the Commander of the French Troops in that Kingdom, finding that he has not a ſufficient Number to prevent the ill Conſequences of this Revolt, has ſent preſſing Inſtances to Verſailles for a new Reinforcement of Troops.

Madrid, April 27. The Court intends to ſend by the Quickſilver Ships, bound to Vera-Cruz, Orders to all the Governors in the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, to narrowly examine into the Complaints, lately made by the Engliſh, and to reſtore ſeveral Ships to them, if it appears upon an Examination of theſe Complaints that they were unlawfully ſeized. A Liſt of the above Ships is ſent with the ſaid Orders.

Paris, May 14. The King has charged his Miniſters in ſeveral Courts to declare, that the King of Sweden, by the Act of Security which he gave upon his Acceſſion to the Throne, having done every Thing which could be expected from him, there was Reaſon to hope, that no Power would pretend to require more of his Swediſh Majeſty; and that, if the contrary ſhould happen, his Majeſty would find himſelf under a Neceſſity of giving the Swedes all the Aſſiſtance they ſhould want to maintain their Glory and Independance.

Paris, May 18. We have received a Confirmation of the Hoſtilities committed by the Engliſh againſt the Subjects of this Crown on the Coaſt of Africa, the Particulars of which are as follows: That the French having built a Fort, and ſettled a Factory at Albreda on the River Gambia, the Engliſh took Umbrage at it, and deemed it an Infraction of the Peace; wherefore, one of their Men of War, attended by ſeveral other Veſſels, cannonaded the Fort, and then landed the beſt Part of their Men, in order to carry the Place by Scalade; but the French, ſeconded by the Natives of the Country, vigorouſly repulſed the Aſſailants. What determined the Engliſh to attack the Fort, was, that the French had fired upon ſome of their Ships that came to trade in the River Gambia.

Amſterdam, May 8. Advices from the Low Countries continue to intimate, that the French are as faſt as poſſible filling their Magazines upon the Frontiers, and augmenting the Garriſons of the fortified Towns there, which gives the Brabanters great Uneaſineſs, and makes them apprehend another Viſit from the French, whom they now hate, as much as their Ignorance made them love that Nation heretofore.

Peterſbourg, May 4. We hear from Wybourg, that notwithſtanding the Magazines there are ſufficiently ſtock'd with Proviſions already for ſix Months to come, yet all Sorts of Stores are adding daily to the preſent Stock, in order that they may be able to furniſh the adjacent Poſts upon any Emergency, and that her Imperial Majeſty's Forces, who are quarter'd in the ſeveral Parts of Finland, may want for no manner of Supplies of any Kind whatſoever.

Glaſgow, May 12. The whole Conduct of the Miniſtry of Verſailles manifeſtly ſhews, that the French Court is forming grand Projects for improving the Commerce of that Nation in America; and, at the ſame Time, is taking the utmoſt Precautions for ſecuring the Poſſeſſion of L'Iſle Royal, or Cape-Breton, and Canada, eſpecially as they are ſo near the Engliſh new and and flouriſhing Colony of Nova-Scotia, at which the French look with an envious Eye. They are ſending great Quantities of Ammunition and Artillery, as well to Louiſbourg, as to the Mouth of the River of St. Lawrence, which ought to awaken the Attention of the Engliſh; who may be well aſſur'd, that if the leaſt Miſunderſtanding ſhould happen between the two Nations, the French will ſtrike the firſt Blow in America, by falling on the Britiſh Colonies there. In that Caſe, Nova-Scotia would be in great Danger, and Jamaica itſelf would not be intirely ſecure, as the French have always ſuch Numbers of Ships at St. Domingo and Cape-Breton; all which they would not fail to employ in giving a Blow to either of thoſe Places, or any other they ſhould think proper to attack; and ſhould they at any Time ſucceed in an Attempt of this Nature, it would not be eaſy to drive them from the Country they ſhould get Poſſeſſion of.

Madrid, May 11. A French Ship is arrived at Alicant, the Captain whereof reports, that not far from that Port he met with four Algerine Men of War, two of which were fifty or ſixty Gun Ships, and the other two forty Gun Ships; that they appear'd to be very well equipp'd, and that having ſpoke with them, the Officers told him, that they put to Sea in Queſt of the Commandeur de la Cerda. This Commodore, who has only two Men of War and two Xebecks under his Command, is determined not to avoid them, though he has been detain'd hitherto at Carthagena by contrary Winds; but we hope he will ſoon find an Opportunity to make the Algerines repent of their Expedition. The St. Joſeph and St. Anthony Man of War arriv'd the 28th of laſt Month at Cadiz, from La Vera Cruz and the Havanna: She had on board 116712 Piaſtres, beſides Cochineal, Tobacco, &c. and is reckon'd a very rich Ship.

Stockholm, May 16. The firſt Embarkation of the Troops which are to be ſent to Finland was made a few Days ago, and conſiſted of 3000 Men. The remaining 5000 will be embarked as ſoon as poſſible, and in the mean Time great Quantities of Ammunition and Proviſions will be ſent to ſupply the Magazines. Theſe Troops are commanded by the Majors-General de Wirtemberg and Hamilton, and it is confirmed that they are to be ſet to work upon the Fortifications of the Frontier Places of Finland.

Berlin, May 25. On the 22d laſt. the King made a Review of thirty-ſeven Battalions, and thirty-one Squadrons, upon the Plain of Tempelhoff. Theſe Troops form'd a Body of 28000 Men, and went through the whole Exerciſe in Preſence of his Majeſty and the Royal Family, attended by all the foreign Miniſters, and moſt of the principal Nobility; and among them were ten Swediſh Officers, who came from Stockholm on purpoſe to ſee this Review, which gave a general Satisfaction to all preſent. Yeſterday the whole Army was exerciſed, and To-morrow his Majeſty will review the Cavalry. His Majeſty intends to return after To-morrow to Potſdam, and to ſet out the firſt of June to viſit his Provinces on the other Side of the Veſer.

Hanover, May 25. The laſt Letters from London give us Hopes of ſeeing the Duke of Cumberland ſoon after the Riſing of the Parliament of England.

Rouen, May 21. In Conſequence of a Contract made with ſome Ship-Builders here, for building Men of War for the Government's Service, two are already finiſhed of forty-five Guns each. They are building Ships with the ſame Eagerneſs in all the other Ports of this Kingdom; and we have certain Advices from Canada, that twenty-two Ships and Frigates have been built there ſince the Peace.

Paris, May 28. It is pretended that the Ceſſion of the Kingdom of Corſica in Favour of a certain Prince, will be brought upon the Carpet at the Congreſs which is to be held at Toulon for adjuſting the Affairs of that Kingdom. The two Men of War lately fitted out at Breſt, will ſail very ſoon under the Command of Mr. Dubois de la Mothe, but the Place of their Deſtination is not known. Another conſiderable Armament is talked of.

LONDON.

May 2. Two 40 Gun Men of War are ordered to be built at Woolwich, and three 20 Gun Ships at Chatham.

Extract of a Letter from Southampton, May 2.

"Two Buſſes of 80 Tons each are launched at this Port, by Mr. Richard Taunton, Merchant, for the Uſe of the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery; one is called the Norfolk, the other the Newcaſtle. They are reckoned as uſeful Veſſels of that Burthen for the Herring Fiſhery, as any ever built in Holland. Two more Buſſes are on the Stocks, and will ſoon be finiſh'd."

We hear that his Royal Highneſs, the Prince of Wales, was laſt Saturday propoſed to the General Court of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, to be their Governor; and 'tis ſaid that his Majeſty has graciouſly condeſcended to Honour that Propoſal with his Approbation, and to promiſe that Society his Royal Favour and Protection.

May 7. We hear from Cadiz, that an Embargo is laid on all the Veſſels in that Port, for Reaſons unknown; but it was expected the Embargo would ſoon be taken off.

May 10. From Berlin we hear, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has publiſhed a Declaration in Favour of the Aſiatic Company, eſtabliſhed at Embden, importing, That if hereafter, whether ſoon or late, a War breaks out in Europe, it ſhall not occaſion the leaſt Prejudice to any Foreigners that may lodge their Money in the Funds of this Company, no not even if their Courts ſhould be at open War with his ſaid Majeſty. The ſame Advices inform us, that they are remounting the Cavalry in Sileſia, with all poſſible Diligence.

They write from Vienna, that a Propoſition has been made at Court to fix the military Eſtabliſhment of Hungary at 70,000 National Troops: But though this may be eaſily done, as that Kingdom is well peopled, it is doubted whether the Government will conſent to it, becauſe the Porte continues to give them Aſſurances of a ſincere Deſire to live in Peace with all her Neighbours; and yet they acknowledge in the ſame Breath, that their laſt Advices from Conſtantinople bring a Confirmation, that both Turks and Tartars are making great Preparations for a War: However, they are very unwilling to take any Step that might give Umbrage to the Porte, and haſten a Rupture.

The laſt Letters from Dreſden adviſe, that Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, has great Hopes of ſucceeding in his Negotiation for a Subſidy Treaty between that Court and the Maritime Powers.

They write from Paris, that their India Company has received an Expreſs from Port L'Orient, with the agreeable News that the Town of Pondicherry, which had been blockaded and beſieged ſeveral Months by the Nabob of Golconda, with an Army of above fifty Thouſand Men, got rid of them in the Month of October laſt: The Nabob being diſcouraged at ſeeing his Army dwindle away to no Purpoſe before the Town, came to a Reſolution to raiſe the Siege; but the French, ſuſtained by the Indians in their Intereſt, purſued him as far as Gingy and Mazulipatan, which they made themſelves Maſters of, and from thence continued their March towards Arcatte, in order to bring the Nabob to Terms of Peace; and they reckoned he would make up Matters with them on their own Conditions, rather than go on with a War, which had already proved ſo expenſive and ruinous to him.

By Letters from Landau we learn, that the French continue filling their Magazines in Alſace, with the utmoſt Diligence.

May 11. They write from Landau, and other Places in Alſace, that the French Commiſſaries are draughting the ſtrongeſt and talleſt Men from the Militia in that Province, in order to complete the regular Troops quartered there. They alſo talk as if an Army would be aſſembled on the Rhine this Summer, at the Requiſition of ſome of the German Princes, in caſe the affair of a King of the Romans be not dropped.

The Maſters of divers Ships lately arrived at Lubeck from Pernau, all agree in reporting that the Number of Ruſſian Troops actually quartered in the conquered Provinces, i. e. from the Frontiers of Finland, to the Confines of Courland, amounts to upwards of 110,000 Men, including Coſſacks and Calmucks: Which Intelligence is confirmed by ſeveral Paſſengers in the ſaid Veſſels, who add, that thoſe Troops are to march out of their Quarters about the Middle of this Month, and form divers Camps.

The Algerines have cut out of a little Port, near Cutrove, eight Neapolitan Veſſels, two Genoeſe, and a large Venetian Ship richly laden.

Yeſterday the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, with their Officers, waited on his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and deliver'd the following Petition:

'The Preſident, Vice Preſident, Council and Society of the 'Free Britiſh Fiſhery, encouraged by his Majeſty's Royal Approbation, humbly approach your Royal Highneſs to entreat your 'favourable Acceptance of being their Governor; an Honour con'deſcended to by your illuſtrious and much lamented Father, whoſe 'princely Virtues were eminently conſpicuous; by his conſtant 'Attention to, and his generous Concern for, the Welfare of this 'Kingdom, and the Proſperity of its Commerce.

'As we conſidered the Succeſs of this national Undertaking, 'from which the moſt laſting Advantages are expected, to have 'depended greatly upon his gracious Protection, we cannot but 'hope for the ſame Benefits from the Influence of your Royal 'Highneſs the Inheritor of all his Virtues; and therefore, SIR, 'we beſeech you to take this Fiſhery under your Protection, which 'will add new Vigour to our Endeavours, and prove the moſt 'auſpicious Omen of its Succeſs.'

To which his Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer:

Gentlemen,

'I return you my Thanks for this Mark of your Duty to the 'King, and of your Regard to me. You may be aſſured, I ſhall 'always be glad to contribute every Thing in my Power to the 'Succeſs of your laudible Attempt for extending the Commerce 'of his Majeſty's Subjects.'

After which they all had the Honour of kiſſing his Royal Highneſs's Hand.

Yeſterday the Purſers of the Boſcawen, Capt. Braund, from Bombay, and the Fort St. George, Capt. Burdett, from Fort St. George, came to the India-Houſe, with the agreeable News, that the ſaid Ships arrived ſafe the 7th Inſt. off Plymouth. They left at the Cape, two French Ships, outward-bound, with Troops on board.

May 13. It is ſaid, a Bill will be brought into Parliament, that in caſe we ſhould be ſo unhappy, as to loſe his Majeſty during the Prince of Wales's Minority, the Parliament then ſitting ſhall continue for three Years longer.

Yeſterday ſeveral of the Lords of the Admiralty, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, went down the River in the Admiralty's Barge, and din'd on board Capt. Rodney's Ship in Long-Reach. The Captain ſails this Week for the South-Seas, to make an Improvement of ſome Diſcoveries made by Lord Anſon when in thoſe Parts.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Capt Hill to Command the Gloria, a 20 Gun Ship, Capt. Martin Commander of the Blandford, of twenty Guns.

And Capt, Harriott to be Commander of the Swan Sloop of War, who are all ordered to join Commodore Edgcombe, who has hoiſted his Pendant on board the Monmouth, a 70 Gun Ship at Plymouth, for the Mediterranean.

Their Lordſhips have alſo appointed Capt. Parry to be Commander of the Buckingham Man of War of 74 Guns, lately launched.

The ſame Day was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordſhips gave Orders for rigging the Buckingham Man of War of 70 Guns, lately launched at Deptford, and to ſail to the Galleons to take in her Guns.

May 15. Two very eminent Mathematicians, &c. are going in Commodore Rodney's Ship, to the South-Seas.

It is ſaid, that a twenty-gun Ship, is alſo appointed to accompany the Commodore in the above Voyage.

May 17. We hear that Mr. Alderman Janſſen, with Admiral Vernon, and ſome other Gentlemen of the Society of the Herring Fiſhery, are gone to Southwold to ſuperintend the Outſet of the Buſſes, for the Shetland Fiſhery this Seaſon.

May 18. The Hon. Houſe of Commons ſat till eleven o'Clock on Thurſday Night on the Regency Bill.

May 20. Private Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that no leſs than twenty-five Corſairs are lately ſailed from the Port of Algiers, in order to cruize upon the Coaſts of Naples and Sicily, and in the Adriatick; which has ſo alarmed the Italian Powers, that they are fitting out many Veſſels for the Protection of their Trade, which becomes daily more and more precarious.

We hear that Prince Edward will ſoon be created Duke of Glouceſter

May 21. The Bill for ſettling the Regency has paſs'd both Houſes of Parliament, and now lies ready for the Royal Aſſent.

May 22. We hear that the Time fixed for the Departure of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, is the 2d of July next.

We hear that Admiral Knowles goes ſoon Governor of Jamaica, in the room of Edward Trelawney, Eſq;

May

May 24. The Speedwell, Wilson, from Rotterdam, with 300 Palatine Passengers for Nova Scotia, arrived at Portsmouth, on Wednesday last.

May 25. By a Vessel just arrived at Liverpool, from Anamaboa, on the Gold Coast in Africa, we have certain Advice, that six French Ships of War were at Anchor there, with Troops, Artificers, Ordnance Stores, and all other Necessaries for building a Castle; and that the Foundation thereof was actually laid before the Ship sailed. Thus will that Nation get such firm Footing on the only valuable Part of the Gold Coast, as must entirely and for ever exclude us from the important Trade which we have hitherto advantageously carried on therewith. This however, is no Sort of Surprize to such as have seriously considered the Nature of our Commerce with Africa, and its Connection with the true Interest of our Colonies, and of Great-Britain itself; whatever it may be to those who were desirous of seeing Anamaboa in the Possession of our most dangerous Rivals, rather than in the Hands of a free and open Company of British Merchants.

ANNAPOLIS, July 17.

We have been infested in this Town and Neighbourhood for some Time past, with a Parcel of Thieves and Robbers, but from whence they come, or who they are, cannot yet be found out, altho' we have strong Suspicions. Almost every Day, since the Attempt made at Mr. Cole's, has brought a fresh Account of some new Villainy either attemped or perpetrated; but we must make Allowance for Exaggeration: However, it is certain, that on Friday last, near South River, a Gentleman of this Town was stopp'd by two Men well mounted and arm'd, who forc'd him out of the Road, and would have robb'd him, but as he happen'd to have no Money about him, they, after many Threats, let him go. Another Gentleman escaped them by the Swiftness of his Horse. They have robb'd several Negroes of Things they were bringing to Market; and have done so many Villainies that the travelling the Road, except in Companies, and with Arms, seems unsafe, and People are afraid of coming to Market. Several Companies have gone out at sundry Times, with Fire-Arms and Dogs, to search for them in the almost impenetrable Fields of Pines near the Town; but without Success: And it is fear'd they are now grown more formidable, having stole sundry good Horses, and are (if we can believe Reports) four or five in Number. One Night three of them had the Impudence to ride almost up to the Town Gate, and hang their Horses, when one of the Watchmen (for we have a constant strong Watch kept every Night) stepp'd up to him, and would have taken him, but observing another of them stoop, as he apprehended to fire at him, presented his Pistol, but it miss'd Fire, on which the Rogues made off with great Precipitation before any more of the Watch could come to him, and left one of their Horses, which they took and brought into Town. Some Gentlemen in Town have published an Advertisement offering Forty Pistoles for the apprehending of them.

The two Men, so often mentioned in this Paper, who went by the Names of Newton and Jones, and who murdered the Master and Mate of a Vessel which came into St. Mary's some Time ago, are arrived from Boston, and confined in St. Mary's County Goal, in order for their Trial, either at a Special Court to be appointed for that Purpose, or at the Provincial Court.

BOSTON, July 15.

We have Advice from Norwich in Connecticut, that Nathaniel Fales of that Town, has lately put off a great Number of counterfeit Dollars (supposed to be made by himself and a Gang of other Rogues) by which two honest Men are quite ruined, and several others are great Sufferers. The said Fales is now gone to Halifax.

Last Week Capt. M'Carthy arrived here from Newcastle, who on the 23d of June past, spoke with Capt. Snow, in a Schooner belonging to this Town, bound to Newfoundland, who inform'd Capt. M'Carthy, that he came from Louisbourgh two Days before, where were five French Men of War of the Line, and that the Day after he came out, he met and spoke with another Ship of War of the same Nation, of 26 Guns, bound to Louisbourgh; and, that the Report there was, that they were going to take Halifax.

NEW-YORK, July 22.

Last Friday Night the House of the Widow Ten Eyck, in Broad-Street, was broke open by some Rogues, who search'd all the House, whilst the People were asleep, and took away the Shop Drawer with about 30*s.* in Money in it, but nothing else that could be miss'd. The Villains also left the Tongs with a Cole of Fire on the Floor, probably with a Design to set the House on Fire, but by good Providence it went out.

Extract of a private Letter from London, dated May 19, 1751.

---The Parliament has granted the Prince of Wales £ 40,000 a Year to support his Houshold:---The Bill for regulating the Currency in America, is very likely to pass, tho' the Council to be heard about it, has been put off from Time to Time. It is remarked, that when the American Affairs come under their Consideration, that great Numbers of the Members withdraw, and scarcely leave enough to make up a House.---'Tis thought they will not rise till June or July.

There never was such Weather known since the Memory of Man, for cold and wet, and 'tis computed that upwards of 600,000 Acres of Land remain unsowed thereby; many Sheep and Lambs dying; one Farmer only has lost 400 Lambs, and Mutton has rose here a Penny a Pound within these few Days; and 'tis said there is going to be an Embargo on Grain. Great Complaints from France, of Damage done by the late Floods.---Sundry Men of War have lately been put into Commission, and great Subscriptions made towards the British Fishery, of which his Royal Highness Prince George is elected Governor.---Commodore Rodney is appointed Governor of Newfoundland, and sails in a few Days for that Place.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.

By the London Gazette of the 25th of May, we find that his Majesty went to the House of Peers, and gave the Royal Assent to a Number of Bills, and among the rest to the three following, viz.

An Act to provide for the Administration of the Government, in Case the Crown should descend to any of the Children of his late Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, being under the Age of Eighteen Years, and for the Care and Guardianship of their Persons.

An Act for regulating the Commencement of the Year, and for correcting the Calender now in Use.

An Act for the better Regulation of Trials by Jury.

Since our last Capt. Edwards, of this Place, arrived from Newry; and Capt. Leiths, from Waterford, with Servants.

Last Sunday Evening we had a Gust of Rain and Thunder, when the Lightning fell on the House of John Guy, Carter, near Society-Hill, beat that Part of the Chimney which was above the Roof, all to Pieces, flinging the Bricks on all Sides the House; went down the Wall to his Stable adjoining, and therein kill'd four Horses. Fragments of the Wall within the House were also torn off and driven about the Rooms; but did little other Damage than breaking some Panes of Glass, the Woman and Children being unhurt, and the Man only somewhat deafened with the Noise. There was a Collection the next Morning to make up his Loss.

Yesterday a Man was committed to the Goal of this City, for attempting to break into the house of Robert Dixon at the Center. He goes by the Name of Thomas Riggaby, and says he came from Virginia. [Probably one of those said to be sent for the BETTER PEOPLING His Majesty's Colonies]

THE present clerks of the several Fire Companies in this city, are requested to meet on Saturday next, at 6 a clock in the afternoon, at the Widow Pratt's, in Market-street, to receive some proposals for the common benefit, to be communicated to their respective companies.

NOtice is hereby given to all persons that intend to carry themselves, goods, wares or merchandize, from Philadelphia to New-York, or from New-York to Philadelphia; that there will be a stage-boat, well fitted, and kept by Patrick Connolin, living in Burlington, that will attend every Tuesday in every week, at the Crooked Billet Wharff, in Philadelphia, for the same business, and will proceed the same day up to Burlington, wind and weather permitting. And on Wednesday morning a stage waggon, with a good arning, kept by Fretwell Wright, at the Blue Anchor in Burlington, and John Predmore, at Cramberry, and James Wilson at Amboy Ferry; will proceed to Obadiah Ayrs's, Inn-keeper at Amboy Ferry; where good entertainment for man and horse is provided, will be kept. And on Thursday a stage passage-boat, with a commodious cabbin, fitted with a tea-table, and sundry other conveniencies, kept by Matthias Iselstine, will be ready to receive passengers or goods, and proceed directly to New-York, and attend her attendance at Whitehall Battery. If Passengers are ready at the places on stage days, 'tis believ'd they will go sooner from Philadelphia to New-York, by 24 or 30 hours, than by any other way that has been made use of by stage, the boat from Philadelphia to Burlington seldom being above four hours on her passage, and never but two or three hours. All persons on or near the road, that have business, may have it done with due care and attendance, and the price of passengers or goods, that shall come to Burlington, will be no more per mile than from Bordentown. On Sundays or Monday in any week, passengers trading up and down the river, or any other manner, whose waggon hire shall amount to Sixteen Shillings, or upwards, shall, upon the first notice, have a waggon, &c. transported to the stage boat, which will be ready to receive them at the landing, and is the most handy and convenient of any thereabouts, there being a good wharff to step into the boat. The waggon for the first time, will begin to attend at the Crooked Billet on Tuesday, the 13th day of August, 1751, and the waggon will proceed the day following. Further, if the ice, or any thing else should at any time prevent the passage boat from going from Burlington to Philadelphia, the stage waggon will, if required, proceed from Burlington to Cooper's Ferry. FRETWELL WRIGHT, JOHN PREDMORE, JAMES WILSON, PATRICK COWAN.

EDWARD STILES,

Commander,

Having two thirds of her cargoe engaged, will ſail in a fortnight. For freight or paſſage, apply to ſaid commander, on board, at Market-ſtreet-wharff. ⊕

To be lett or ſold, by

BENJAMIN LOXLEY,

A Quantity of meadow ground, lying on Petty's iſland, near Kenſington, bounded by ground of Mr. Daniel Cooper's, on one ſide, by ground of Mr. Robert Moore's, on the other ſide, by a lane 2 rodd wide on the back, and by the river on the front, 'tis well cleared and in good order, fenc'd with good poſt and rails, of cedar, and ditch all round to itſelf, with 2 middle drains, a ſmall tenement, and a large fram'd barrock, full of hay and oats, and alſo a large ſtack, both cloſe to the landing place; about 6 acres of the ſaid land is under good Indian corn now, which together, with the hay and oats, may be ſold with or without the ground. A plan of the above ground, may be ſeen at the above Loxley's, which divides it very conveniently into 3 or 6 parts, to ſerve thoſe that dont want it all.

TO BE LETT,

A Griſt mill, ſhilling mill, ſaw mill and malt houſe, being the property of Joſeph Harvey, of Ridley, Cheſter county, ſituate about a mile and a quarter from the beſt landing on Darby creek, with a good road leading to, and from the premiſes, and a good dwelling-houſe adjacent to the ſame, alſo paſturage for 2 or 3 creatures, and ſome hay for the winter ſeaſon. Any perſon or perſons inclining to take the premiſes, may have 2 or 3 Negroe boys lett with them, or otherwiſe they will be diſpoſed of to any perſon that may want to buy or hire them.

There is alſo about 200 acres of land without fence, very well ſtock'd with all ſorts of timber, for ſawing, ſplitting, fencing and firewood; from the keels of large ſhips to the ſmalleſt of faggots: Some of the ſaid land is very good for corn, the reſt for meadow. The owner hath delayed clearing thereof, till the beſt might be made of the ſaid timber, without commiting waſte thereof. Any honeſt and laborious men inclining to make the beſt of both ſoil and timber, ſhall meet with due encouragement from the ſaid Harvey, now living on the premiſes. ¶

ALl perſons indebted to the eſtate of Thomas Sharp, late of this city, merchant, deceaſed, are deſired forthwith to pay their reſpective debts to William Whitebread, executor to John Thomas, deceaſed; who was executor of the ſaid Thomas Sharp, or they may expect to be ſued for the ſame, by ¶ WILLIAM WHITEBREAD.

Philadelphia, July 25, 1751.

RUn away on the 23d inſt. from Henry Lawrence, of Marple-townſhip, Cheſter-county, a ſervant-man, named John Dougherty, of middle ſtature, ſwarthy complexion, a weaver by trade: Had on when he went away, an old hat, linnen cap, darkiſh colour'd cloth coat, with hair buttons, one button of a different ſort, new ozenbrigs ſhirt and trowſers, brown yarn ſtockings, and old ſhoes; he has a large ſcar on his forehead, and the ſkin of his hands is much crack'd. Whoever ſecures the ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Thirty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by HENRY LAWRENCE. ¶
